

I firmly support net neutrality and title 2. The net should not be controlled by or slowed down by these companies. This is common sense for the average user and only the big companies will be gaining by reversing net neutrality. Please do not allow any changes for their purposes.